

THE UNIVERSE SPEAKS

By Jerry Tinsley

Sitting by the azure pool, deeply steeped in meditation,

I ask the Universe,
“What is the meaning of life?”

The Universe answers back, “What is the meaning of sitting?”

Desert breeze offers a lingering cosmic laugh.

More words come from who knows where.

“Live, love, laugh; give,
and receive, gracefully.

Take care of all that breathes.

Feel with.

Caress, cherish, enjoy,
thank, forgive, hope.”

Gifts of the Universe are for observing, borrowing,
using,
and giving back,
even more than we receive.
